

APPLICATIONS FOR VISITING FELLOWS 2010

Research School of Humanities
The Australian National University

The Research School of Humanities (RSH) at ANU, builds upon and integrates the activities of the Humanities Research Centre and the Centre for Cross-Cultural Research, both recognised internationally as premier sites for scholarship in the Humanities. It also hosts the National Europe Centre and Freilich Foundation, and the Australian National Dictionary Centre. The RSH aims to foster interdisciplinary research in the humanities through its annual and continuing programs of conferences, seminars, graduate studies and short-term Visiting Fellowships.

Applications for Visiting Fellowships tenable at the RSH in 2010 are now invited. The majority of Fellowships will be awarded to scholars whose current projects relate to the RSH annual theme for 2010 'Imaging Identity'. Scholars working in areas designated as key research programs of the RSH are welcome to apply.

Applications for fellowships to the Freilich Foundation to work in the area of bigotry and tolerance are also welcomed as are applications for the National Europe Centre.
